

In loving memory of

John Eaton
(1942-2020)

May we remember John
by one of his favorite quote:

"You cannot step into the same river twice, for waters are continually flowing on."

— Heraclitus

To patterns, paradoxes and poetry.
To the beauty of the natural world that surrounds us.
To the magic that animates the human spirit.

John was all of the above.

John's legacy will echo in the Gatineau Hills eternally.
